

RED TROOPS CLAMBER OVER THEIR DEAD TO PUSH TO WITHIN A MILE OF POHANG IN HEAVIEST SERIES OF BATTLES RAGING ALONG MOST OF THE KOREAN FRONT

Eastern Port Brought Within Easy Range of Communist Siege Guns

2ND DIV. ADVANCES

1st Cavalry Division Storms Strategic Hill Northwest of Taegu

By Howard Handelman
(Far Eastern Director, I. N. S.)

TOKYO, Aug. 31—(INS)—Red troops, clambering over the bodies of hundreds of their dead, pushed today to within a mile of Pohang in the heaviest of a series of battles raging along almost the entire Korean front.

The eastern port was brought within easy range of Communist siege guns while other enemy forces to the west gained more than a mile in a drive to slice between Pohang and pivotal Taegu, 44 miles inland.

Some 15 miles northwest of Taegu, U. S. First Cavalry Division troops stormed a strategic hill for the second straight day after being driven back Wednesday in their initial effort to take the height.

Southwest of Taegu, U. S. Second Division forces unleashed an attack that gained more than a mile in the vicinity of Changdong Wednesday. The advance was continuing Thursday.

At the southern extremity of the 120-mile fighting perimeter, U. S. 25th Division units counter-attacked and plugged up holes punched in the American lines by Red forces Wednesday.

The Americans were mopping up on Communist infiltrators who jabbed into the U. S. rear to within 28 air miles west of Pusan, key port on Korea's southeast tip.

But it was at the opposite end of the front—the east coast—that the day's major action was in progress. There, assault hammerheads of the North Korean 12th Division drove within eyesight of Pohang's battered buildings after forcing the city's defenders back a mile.

The ferocity of the battle for Pohang and the nearby road center of Kigye was reflected in an announcement that at least 1,200 Red troops were killed in that sector by air action alone on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The U. S. Air Force said more than 500 North Korean soldiers were killed and "many injured" Wednesday east of Kigye in rocket and machine gun attacks by low-sweeping American and Australian planes.

The announcement added that United Nations troops, "advancing in the sector west of Kigye, reported finding 700 North Korean foot soldiers killed by air assaults" Tuesday. The enemy's casualties in ground combat also were reported heavy.

Kigye, at last reports a virtual no man's land in the center of searing fighting, lies eight miles west-northwest of Pohang which in turn is 64 miles north of Pusan.

Swarms of allied planes renewed their attacks Thursday on an estimated 20,000 Red troops attempting to overwhelm Pohang.

But the invading columns kept charging in and Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced that the "entire front" of the South Korean Third Division above Pohang was under "heavy enemy pressure" as of noon Thursday.

Activities of Interest To All In The Various Communities

GLEANNED BY SCRIBES

Harold Kurzmam, who was committed to the Bucks County Prison Friday morning, on a charge of suspicion of having committed a felony, larceny of an automobile, was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace I. Elizabeth Jones, Warwick township, on Saturday afternoon.

Officer William Nuskey, of the Warminster township police, having made an investigation and a check with both the Pennsylvania and New Jersey State Police, withdrew the charge.

The defendant, who gave two addresses, Horsham, and Stockton, N. J., when picked up, was driving a car he supposedly purchased in Trenton, the middle of last week. He was found guilty of illegal use of registration plates, failure to have a registration card and failure to have an inspection certificate, for which he paid fines amounting to $40 and costs.

INFILTRATION OF UNIONS IS RED AIM

Potentialities Constitute A Definite Threat To Nation's Security

WARN OF SABOTAGE

In this fourth article of his series, "The Enemy at Home," Pulitzer Prize reporter Malcolm Johnson tells of Communist infiltration of labor unions in the United States.

By Malcolm Johnson
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
THE ENEMY AT HOME
Chapter Four

NEW YORK, Aug. 31—(INS)—Communist infiltration of American labor unions is a vital aim of the Soviet-directed conspiracy against the United States.

The partial success of the Communists in this phase of the conspiracy has been eloquently demonstrated in the past. That, too, is a matter of record. The potentialities for the future—especially in time of war—constitute a definite threat to the nation's security.

In some notable instances Communists have succeeded in seizing complete control of unions which have contracts with important defense industries.

Thus today, with American soldiers fighting Communists on the Korean battlefield, Communist conspirators in the United States are at work, through certain labor unions, in all major defense plants, including atomic energy plants.

They are in a position to sabotage the war effort, to foment sabotage.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Chinese Communists charged that United States planes had made new attacks on Manchuria. Secretary Acheson said that while the United States sought in every way to keep Peiping out of the Korean war, an attack on Korea by the Chinese Communists would be clear aggression.

United Nations observers feel that Moscow decided to attend the General Assembly to make certain that the Peiping regime would not be admitted to the world body. In a surprise move, the Russians added the Greek question to today's Security Council agenda, presumably for propaganda.

President Truman asked Congress for more millions. He urged a $139,800,000 appropriation to start dispersal of Government agencies in Washington to guard against an atomic attack. He asked for $50,000,000 to put into effect whatever wage, price and rationing controls Congress decided on and urged the Senate to restore House cuts in an $89,000,000 fund for the "great truth campaign" to counter Russia's propaganda barrage of "most flagrant lies." He also asked speedy action on a bill to increase taxes.

Congress heeded the President's request and laid aside universal military training for this session.

The House, 362 to 1, amended and sent back to the Senate a bill to draft physicians, dentists and medical specialists.

Defense Secretary Johnson struck back at his critics. He told one of them, a Democratic Congressman, that the attacks were based on misinformation and were "primarily political" to discredit the Administration. The Veterans of Foreign Wars overwhelmingly demanded the resignation of Mr. Johnson and Secretary Acheson.

Both Cabinet members, but especially Mr. Acheson, were under heavy attack by Republican members of a Senate committee when they appeared to urge prompt approval of $4,000,000,000 to help arm Western Europe. The attack dealt with the Korean situation.

Britain moved to strengthen her defenses. Parliament will be asked to lengthen the period of compulsory service and to raise service pay. United States High Commissioner McCloy is on his way home with West German pleas for protective police and for a part in Europe's defense.

Hungary reported signing an agreement with the Roman Catholic clergy on state-church relations.

The House cited Dr. Edward A. Tamm.

2 FROM PENNDEL SIGN "MAN-TO-MAN" CARD

Agreement Is Aimed To Advance Safety On The Highways

FALLS TRAFFIC LIGHT

LANGHORNE, Aug. 31—Enthusiasm for the Kiwanis Club's highway safety projects permeated the dinner meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Bucks County Lincoln Highway held on Tuesday evening at Jesse W. Soby Post country club home, and the Board of Directors meeting which followed, both presided over by W. Spencer Erwin, the club president.

A ten-year driver, Walter Mason, of Pennell, signed a "Man-to-Man" Club agreement with his father, Walter D. Mason, promising to drive the family car safely and courteously, after a short talk on highway safety by club secretary John A. A. Crowley, and a greeting by A. C. Millikin, safety chairman.

The first showing of a new highway safety film, "Fatal Seconds," drove home the lesson of safety in automobile driving. Wayne Stradling, of Woodbourne, showed several other films on highway and sports safety.

The Kiwanis Club was informed that the State Highway Department has granted permission for installation of traffic signal controls at the Lincoln Highway intersection at Fallsington, for which the club had petitioned at the request of the Pennsylvania high school authorities. Forty school buses use this intersection daily during the school year.

In support of the state-wide bicycle highway safety campaign, the board of directors voted to print and distribute 3000 illustrated booklets showing right and wrong methods of bicycle riding. These booklets will be made available to all schools in the Kiwanis Club area in lower Bucks county within two miles of the Lincoln highway.

The Kiwanis Club meeting on September 12th will be the kick-off for the bicycle highway safety campaign. Editors of local newspapers are to be invited to participate in this meeting, to discuss highway safety.

"PLAY IT SAFE BY DRIVING SAFE OVER THE LABOR DAY WEEK-END," SAYS MANAGER OF PENNSYLVANIA MOTOR FEDERATION

"Play it safe by driving safe over the Labor Day week-end," R. B. Maxwell, of Harrisburg, secretary-manager of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation representing 57 member AAA automobile clubs in the State, urged motorists today.

Predicting heavy traffic over the long holiday week-end, Mr. Maxwell warned that heavier traffic will bring with it a much greater risk of accident.

The PMF official offered the following three-point program to motorists for a safe week-end:

1. Start early, both on departing for that week-end jaunt and on the return trip in order to remove any necessity for exceeding the speed limits.

2. Don't pass on hills or curves.

3. Observe all stop signs, signals and traffic regulations.

BIDS TO BE OPENED FOR NEW BRIDGE TODAY

Commission Will Be in Session at Offices in Trenton

BONDS TO BE ISSUED

Plans for the new $10,000,000 bridge across the Delaware will move a step forward today as bids for the construction work are opened by the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission.

The first bids are scheduled to be opened at noon today in the Commission's offices in Trenton, N. J.

To pay for the span the Commission plans to issue bonds for $14,500,000. Some $2,000,000 of this will go to pay for approaches and rights-of-way to the bridge in Morrisville and Trenton. The Commission's bridge between Easton and Phillipsburg, further up the river, will also get a new $4,000,000 approach. Another $700,000 will be used to retire present Commission bonds.

The bridge will be built between the railroad bridge and the present lower bridge. Houses on Moreau street in Morrisville will be demolished to make way for the above-ground approach that will be built there.

The new bridge will link the New Jersey Freeway with Pennsylvania. Properties on several Trenton streets will also be demolished to make way for the New Jersey approach. The span will not have any overhead structure and will conform to the architecture of the Freeway.

Believe All 55 of Crashed Plane Killed

Cairo—A Trans-World Airlines Bombay-to-New York Constellation crashed and burned in the Egyptian desert early today and apparently all 55 persons aboard were killed, including 21 Americans.

The Americans included 16 passengers, among whom were two children, and five crewmen.

The unexplained crash of the giant, four-engined airliner occurred 55 miles northwest of Cairo near the little mudhut village of Atay Barad. Company officials said there apparently were no survivors among the 48 passengers and seven crew members. The plane had disappeared last night on the Cairo-Rome leg of its flight. It was sighted early this morning.

The ship apparently went down less than 30 minutes after taking off from Farouk field.

VFW Asks That Acheson and Johnson Be Fired

Chicago—Delegates who adopted resolutions asking for the firing of Secretary of State Acheson and Defense Secretary Johnson were slated to elect new officers today at the Veterans of Foreign Wars National Encampment in Chicago.

In the resolutions, they asked President Truman to "appoint new, patriotic and able persons" in the State Department and for "new and competent leadership" in the Defense Department. The measures did not call Acheson and Johnson by name but delegates who argued from the floor were not as polite.

PARENTS, TEACHERS TRANSFORM ROOMS

Work Transformations At Croydon and Edgely School Buildings

"GREEN-BOARDS" NOW

It's work at the "green-board" from now on for pupils of grades three and five at Edgely school building in Bristol township. Bismatic paint has transformed the "black-boards" in those two basement rooms at the larger of the old Edgely school buildings, into bismatic green chalk boards.

Transformations have been wrought at Croydon school building also, the room in that building serving as an experiment being that which houses grade six. There new marble-ized linoleum, sealed on the floor, matches that which has been sealed to new tables.

The Parent-Teacher Association members in each of those communities are the "fairy godmothers" in each instance, but instead of wielding magic wands, they were strong on the "elbow grease." They have been working early and late to bring about the transformation.

The result at each building is truly a picture, the classrooms being not only made easier to study and work in, but having color schemes which are easy on the eyes and nerves, and which bring into play draperies which permit of entry of light, but prevent glare.

Days of work are represented in the renovations of the room for the sixth grade at Croydon school, which the P. T. A. decided to use for the experimental project. In-laid linoleum was sealed to the floor after desks were removed. The new tables which members made, also have tops covered with the same pattern of linoleum. Each table will accommodate eight pupils. Folding chairs will be used. Book shelves have been placed all around the room. Matching linoleum covers the floor of the office.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By Walter Kiernan
(Distributed by International News Service)

The man who was going to stay submerged until taxes came down didn't stick it out nearly as long as the woman who is letting her hair grow until a Republican sits in the White House.

She parted friends with her barber in 1932 and she is now combing eight feet of Democratic curls.

She has watched women all around her change their style of hair-do eight times but she's still waiting for the men to change their style of politics just once.

But this fellow who went on the tax dive gave up after 10 weeks. . . . Something told him taxes were not coming down. It may have been his Congressman.

The only way I can see to increase revenues above present plans is put more MacArthur speeches in the Congressional Record and get it on the news stands.

With a little White House publicity they could get 50 cents for the book without putting holes in the cover.

ANOTHER KOREA!

Estimates differ on the size of the military machine the Russians are building in East Germany. But there is no question that the Soviet is forging a formidable weapon there.

U. S. High Commissioner McCloy, in a report to Secretary of State Acheson, puts the strength of the People's Police in East Germany at 100,000 men. He declares that so-called "alert units" now in training total 50,000 men.

But this report, though it has just been made public, came under a covering letter dated July 17. And it dealt with the first three months of this year. The press service of the Christian Democratic Party in West Germany, which presumably gets its information from the same sources as those relied on by the West German Federal Republic, has released later and larger figures.

The press service says these "alert units"—it calls them "commandos"—comprise from 50,000 to 100,000 men. It adds that the total armed strength of the German forces in the Soviet zone, including the frontier police, approximates 300,000 men.

It is perfectly clear the Russians are creating a German army in their zone, for these "police" are being trained in the use of artillery and tanks as well as small arms. The active force is now being given a reserve.

The purpose would be obvious in any case, but the communist-controlled press in East Germany has left no one any excuse for misunderstanding what is afoot. It is charging that troops of the United States, Britain and France now in Germany are there illegally and that the German people have a right to demand the withdrawal of this "interventionist" army.

Plainly, Germany could become another Korea torn by civil war. Seeing this threat, Chancellor Adenauer of West Germany asked for permission to set up a federal police force of 25,000 men. When the occupation powers suggested 10,000 men, he made a public appeal for a special force, and asked for more occupation troops.

SEPTEMBER

Some great events in the history of the United States occurred in the month of September, including the Battle of Lake Erie, the Battle of Lake Champlain, the meeting of the First Continental Congress, Washington's Farewell Address and the writing of the Star-Spangled Banner.

Yet it is none of these events which is celebrated in September. When the average American thinks of September's arrival he thinks of Labor Day, the last holiday of the summer. Always observed on the first Monday in September, Labor Day provides opportunity to enjoy a long weekend vacation trip by automobile.

It is estimated 50,000 North Koreans have been killed in the fighting to date, some of them before breakfast.

used by sixth grade teacher and acting principal, Mrs. Mary Divine. Window shades were dispensed with, and in their place appear full-length theatrical gauze in a neutral tone. This will permit entry of light, while at the same time do away with glare, it is claimed. Monks cloth has been used to cover the coat hooks; and in front of certain storage shelves appears red check gingham curtains.

It was the men of the P. T. A. who made the tables and segled down the linoleum. To the women fell the scrubbing job. This included all desks throughout the eight school rooms. "We added a bleach to the water, so that the desks would 'come up' lighter," explains the women. This scrubbing did away with many finger prints, ink marks, etc.

William Moran is president of the P. T. A. The membership which took delight in helping with the project follows: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Owsak, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Marshall, Herbert McCollum, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. Wett, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Shifferstine, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Mary Divine, Miss Leona Beck, Mrs. Dorothy Lane, Mrs. Hochwald, Mrs. Polk, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Kutzer, Mrs. Sarah Holl, Philip Myers, Mrs. Walter Chandler, Mrs. L. There are 12 boards along the walls at the larger of the two old Edgely school buildings which have been changed from black to green by application of bismatic paint. These are located in two basement rooms. It is claimed the boards now reflect, instead of absorb, light. The walls of the rooms, due to application of paint, are "yellow con-fetti" tone; and the ceilings remain white. The school is located on route 13 at Randolph street.

The East Bristol township P. T. A. members have been actively engaged at the task for about three weeks. The P. T. A. at the Edgely building has also made use of the theatrical gauze for curtaining the windows; and valances are of baste and voile. Monks cloth has been utilized as curtains for the cloak room.

The two rooms so transformed house George Mukallian's fifth grade, and Mrs. Elwood Dyson's third grade. This is the first year that Mrs. Dyson's third grade will be located in the basement, pupils previously occupying the small building at the old school site.

"Women of the P. T. A. did all the work," it is stated, in connection with renovations at Edgely. They painted, made curtains and valances, etc., working like beavers to be ready for school opening on September 7th.

Tables and chairs have been added to grade five room, replacing desks there. The school board provided these.

Head teacher at the school is Mrs. John F. Ellis. The P. T. A. members were headed in their work by president Mrs. William Crawford. Bristol township pupils who aided with the painting are: Kenneth Worthington, Edward De-Koyor, Kathleen and William Crawford.

Red Troops Clamber Over Their Dead in Pohang Push

Thursday EDT), said South Korean units were forced into further "minor" withdrawals before the violent enemy onset.

An International News Service dispatch from the sector said the right (east) flank of the South Korean Third Division was pushed back about a mile Thursday morning. It added that the South Koreans were holding a line only 2,000 to 3,000 yards north of the city at that time.

The Division's left (west) flank stood its ground Thursday morning about three miles northwest of the second best Korean port in allied hands.

Farther west, MacArthur's communiqué related, the South Korean Capital Division was "under heavy enemy small arms and light artillery fire" early Thursday. But the bulletin said the division "continued to hold its positions in the Kigye area."

The assault aimed at cracking through heights south of Kigye to slash Pohang's inland rail-highway routes was being pressed by the North Korean Fifth Division.

Farther inland, west of Kigye, MacArthur said the South Korean Eighth Division "contained" a "heavy" new southward onslaught by Red forces which drove the South Koreans back more than a mile.

This fresh enemy attack, the afternoon communiqué stated, was launched at 5 o'clock Thursday morning in the neighborhood of Chidong-Ni, 6½ miles northwest of Kigye.

Still farther west, MacArthur announced, "heavy fighting continued" south of Uihung where the South Korean Sixth Division was pressed back to the vicinity of Hwasandong, where the South Koreans counter-attacked.

Hwasandong is five miles southeast of enemy-held Uihung and only 16 miles north-northeast of Taegu, inland cornerstone of the allied defense rectangle.

MacArthur said the South Korean Sixth Division was achieving "good progress in the elimination" of a Red group that infiltrated to the vicinity of the division's rear command post Wednesday.

strikes and work stoppages, to retard or halt vital defense production and the transportation of war materiel. They have done it before and they will do it again—if they can.

For example, on the very day that South Korea was invaded (June 25) the Ingersoll-Rand plant at Easton, Pa., manufacturing atomic energy equipment, was struck.

The strike was called by a local of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, regarded as the largest Communist-dominated union in the United States today.

One of the negotiators of the contract with Ingersoll-Rand, as an international representative of the union, was Marcel Scherer, who has been repeatedly identified in sworn testimony as a Communist—Moscow-trained and assigned to work among U. S. scientists.

Scherer ran for Alderman on the Communist Party ticket in Brooklyn in 1931. In 1939 Benjamin Gitlow, former secretary of the Communist Party, testified before a Congressional committee that Scherer had had all kinds of positions in the party and was "one of the oldest and most trusted" party members.

The UERMWA was expelled from the CIO last November as a Communist dominated union. The expulsion resolution opened with these words: "We can no longer tolerate within the family of CIO the Communist Party masquerading as a labor union."

Nevertheless the union today still has about 250,000 members, and has bargaining relations with such industrial giants as Westinghouse Electric Corp., General Electric, General Motors, RCA and Sylvania electrical products.

Members of this Communist-controlled union therefore are working in industries which manufacture many strategic materials, such as electrical equipment, radar and electrical instruments for airplanes, submarines and machinery for the production of atomic energy.

In addition to Scherer, various other officials of the union have been identified as Communists by witnesses before the House Un-

American Activities Committee. They include Julius Emspak, general secretary and treasurer, and James Matles, director of organization—two of the most powerful figures in the union.

During World War II, the UERMWA called a series of strikes in key defense plants.

Of the significance of the Communist control of a union such as UERMWA with workers in key industries, ex-Communist Louis Budenz testified:

"The Communist Party constantly seeks control of those sources of power that can paralyze America. . . . We had, in the Allis-Chalmers and North American Aviation strikes a living example of that, where those places were tied up in order to help Hitler during the Hitler-Stalin alliance."

Another union expelled from the CIO last June 15 as Communist-dominated is the American Communications Associations, whose workers include telegraphers and radio operators. The union has a contract with Western Union covering its New York City workers.

The president of ACA is Joseph P. Selly, of whom the House Un-American Activities Committee says:

"His unreserved allegiance to the Communist Party is attested by the fact that he is affiliated with various front organizations, by the fact that he has consistently followed the line of the Communist Party, and by the fact that his union has done the same."

"This man, whose primary loyalty is to the Communist party and to the Soviet Union in preference to the United States . . . controls strategic sections of an industry which are recognized as the very nerve center of American industry and the war effort. As such he is potentially one of the most dangerous individuals in the country."

Selly has never been a telegrapher or radio operator. In 1937 he was appointed as an organizer in the American Radio Telegraphists Association, which later became the ACA.

"There has been voluminous testimony as to the completeness of the Communist control of ACA," says the Congressional Committee.

Of the Union's activity during the last war, the Committee reported: "ACA fought every effort to rid the American Merchant Marine of subversive radio operators. . . . There is no reason to doubt that American shipments of supplies to the war theaters was saved from an outbreak of devastating sabotage among Communist radio operators only by the fact that Russia joined the allies as a result of Hitler's attack in June, 1941."

Murray Winocur, who was second vice-president of the Marine Department of ACA, was among forty of the union's members removed from their ships as subversive.

But the Communist Daily Worker jubilantly reported on June 12, 1942:

"The ACA almost tore off the roof of the Navy Department with its protests. . . . Other unions, including the National Maritime Union, entered the fight and the Navy had a change of heart. . . . Recently Winocur and others were reinstated in the industry."

Western Union's contract with ACA in New York City was signed before the union's expulsion from CIO. A Government report has emphasized that this union, while Communist controlled, has a large majority of loyal Americans.

In this situation telegraphers who wanted no part of the union's leadership were notified by Western Union that under the contract they must become members, or pay dues to the union, as a condition of continued employment after August 21.

Outside New York City Western Union has a contract with an AFL union, the Commercial Telegraphers, which has been trying in vain to oust the ACA in New York (Tomorrow—The Soviet propaganda machine.)

Selzer followed his profession as a physician. They are now located in New York, N. Y., and learned of Point Pleasant through their friendship with Carl Nathan whose cottage they have been occupying on King's Isle during his absence.

Gladys Hillegass, 12, of Shelly, was one of two children admitted to the Allentown Hospital for treatment of what is believed to be infantile paralysis.

The other patient is Jeffrey Lee Eyer, 11, Emmaus. Hospital authorities have described the condition of the children as good.

ST. ANN'S TO PLAY PIRATES

St. Ann's A. A. will meet the Trenton Pirates this evening in a Trenton Industrial League game on Riverview field. The game is being played because the Pirates will drop into a deadlock for second place. The "Saints" captured the championship of the circuit last evening when rain caused the postponement of the Pirates-Michalski game. As the season ends this evening, the Pirates cannot catch the Bristol team.

and third grades being separated for the 1950-51 term. Enrollment last year was 320, and it is announced that registration to date is 350. An addition of one teacher to the faculty brings total to seven, this including a music teacher. The instructresses are Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Pennell convent. Two school buses will make two trips each, morning and afternoon, to transport pupils.

St. Charles school at Cornwells Heights accommodates eight grades—one to eight, with six teachers of the IHM order, Cornwells Heights, in charge. There are six classrooms, (one new one being opened this year), and enrollment last year was over 300. Increased enrollment is expected, the faculty announces. The new classroom will accommodate parts of grades two and three which were crowded last term. The exterior of St. Charles school has been re-painted.

Award Contract for Steel I-Beams for Aqueduct

An award for steel eyebeams required in the rebuilding of the Durham Aqueduct on the Pennsylvania Delaware Division Canal was made recently by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to Kauffman Brothers in Langhorne.

This announcement was made by Mrs. Wilmet C. Arey, president of the Delaware Valley Protective Association, who also said that on two previous occasions during the past six months the Commonwealth had found it impossible to obtain bids for these vital structural beams.

With the receipt of this material, Mrs. Arey explained that the Durham Aqueduct can now be completed. The rebuilding of this aqueduct will enable the Department of Forests and Waters to have water in the Canal (otherwise known as Roosevelt State Park) from Easton to Ingham Aqueduct in the borough of New Hope.

It is hoped that the seventy-foot long eyebeams will be received in the late fall, some time after the completion of the abutments for the Aqueduct.

Although there has been water in the Canal from the Delaware intake near New Hope down to Bristol, a distance of some twenty-seven miles, Mrs. Arey stated that her association has received hundreds of inquiries from the residents of the Valley regarding the unsightly and unhealthy condition of the Canal from Point Pleasant through New Hope borough. "I know the residents and visitors will be happy to learn that at last we have water 'within sight,'" Mrs. Arey said.

NEWS OF SCHOOLS IN AREA - - -

St. Mary's Hall

BURLINGTON, N. J., Aug. 31—St. Mary's Hall will have an attractive booth at the forthcoming Garden State Fair, to be held at Mount Holly during the week of September 4. The exhibit will tell the story of the school—past and present—in photographs, arts and crafts, literature, posters and other displays. Mrs. C. W. Turner, the school Registrar, will be in charge and available to reply to questions. Assisting will be a Committee of St. Mary's recent graduates, under the chairmanship of Miss Sallie Siegrist of Bordentown.

Among the exhibits will be photographs of graduating classes at ten year intervals from 1840 to 1950. This collection is always the focal point of interest in the many visitors, from all parts of the country, who come to the school through the year, as frequently they have had relatives in one or more of the graduating classes. These photographs also show the change of costumes during the past century, as well as an interesting comparison between the manner in which class photographs were posed in earlier years with those of the present day.

Another group of photographs will illustrate the uniforms now being worn at St. Mary's. The Upper and Middle School ones were modeled by Miss Judith Fox of Burlington, Pa., a member of the new Senior class and Barbara Budd of Burlington appears in the Lower School uniform.

The largest group of photographs will depict scenes at the school and on the campus, and numerous activities in the life of the institution. There will be sketches and ceramics by Art students and a daily display of flowers from the school gardens.

In speaking of the Fair Exhibit, Miss Florence Lukens Newbold, the Headmistress of St. Mary's said:

"I believe the Garden State Fair offers an excellent opportunity for us to acquaint large numbers of visitors from our own state and nearby ones, on important facts about St. Mary's, its purpose, objectives and its long and enviable record in the academic world, as well as the wise training it has offered its students in true Christian principles. I am sure many persons will find much in our booth to interest them. I congratulate those in charge of the arrangements of the Fair and the Becker-Karg-Caldwell Post 2692, Veterans of Foreign Wars, who are sponsoring the event, for their vision in encouraging educational institutions to participate."

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO NEWTOWN CHURCH*Numerous Changes at The Presbyterian Edifice
In That Borough*JUNIOR C. E. SEASON

NEWTOWN, Aug. 31—Improvements and additions have been made to the property and equipment of Newtown Presbyterian Church during the summer.

The room in Fellowship hall, adjoining the primary department, will serve as a room for the women of the senior choir. A large closet with sliding doors has been built for the storing of choir robes. Another piano has been provided for the auditorium, to be used beginning October 1st, when an early service of worship in connection with the Church School assembly will be held. Portable partitions have been built to divide the front room of Fellowship hall, so as to divide the room into two departments, junior and junior-high.

Beginning with promotion in October, the Junior department will conduct its own opening exercises. In the new kitchen, arrangements have been made for hot water at the touch of an electric switch.

For the program of Christian education, the Brotherhood of the church has purchased a sound motion picture projector and screen. This will be used for Westminster Fellowship meetings, and other church groups. Other improvements are being planned, such as the painting of Fellowship hall.

Henry C. Shriver is chairman of the improvement fund, which is being raised in the congregation.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society, an organization which has served the children for many years, will begin its fall and winter season on Wednesday, September 6th, after school. Following several years of faithful leadership by Mrs. Grace Baker and Mrs. Andrew H. Dillman, the group will be led this year by Mrs. C. Donald Downs and Mrs. Earl Saurman. Membership in the Junior Endeavor is open to children of the first four grades. The program is Bible-centered. In addition to the program, a social period will be observed. Sessions are held in the rooms at the rear of the church with entrance on North Chancellor street.

Housework Easy Without Nagging Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slow down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions. If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today! RACING STRIP IS RECONDITIONED AT SOUTH LANGHORNE

The racing strip at Langhorne Speedway has been completely reconditioned for the 100-Mile National Motorcycle championship, which is to be decided on Sunday as the climax of a two-day racing extravaganza.

The Langhorne track, recognized as the fastest one-mile dirt oval in the world, has twice been disked, harrowed and rolled for a nine-event card listed for Saturday.

After practice runs starting at 9 a. m., and qualifying time trials beginning at 12 noon, the first competitive event will be staged at 2 p. m. Saturday's program will include complete novice racing and clear the way for the century classic and four other events on Sunday.

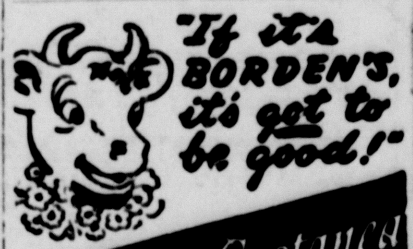

The speedway will again be worked on from 6 a. m. Sunday until 2 p. m., when amateur riders will decide the 5, 10 and 15 titles. The 100-mile and a 10-mile consolation race for experts who fail to qualify for the feature will follow. In the event of threatening weather, the century classic will be advanced on the time schedule.

Herman (Doc) Voichick and

Gene Shillingford, co-chairmen of the arrangements committee for the Middle Atlantic Motorcycle Dealers Association, believe that the record number of entries, plus the excellent condition of the speedway, will result in a new set of records down the line.

Jimmy Chann, then of Bridgeton, N. J., but now riding out of Peoria, Ill., won the 100-mile last year, setting new standards all the way. He will defend his honors.

The century classic is being staged at Langhorne for the 12th year. Only one rider, Ed Kretz, has ever won the event more than once.

Labor Day

Only a half decade has passed since the most terrible war of mankind came to an end in Tokyo Bay, yet today the world still lives in fear of a new outbreak. Let us pray on this day for a peace that will bring the greatest possible glory to those who died so recently for it.
